Said the ta-ble to the chair you can har-dly be a-ware How I su ffer from the heat And from chil-blains on my feet, If we took a li-ttle walk We might have a li-ttle talk, Pray let us take the air, Said the ta-ble to the chair

5

8

13

Said the chair un-to the ta-ble "Now youknow we are not ab-le. How fool-ish-ly you talk,when you know we can-not walk!" Said the ta-ble with a sigh, "It can do no harm to try, I've as ma-ny legs as you. Why can't we walk on two?"

17

20

25

3

So theyboth went slow-ly down, and theywalked a-bout the town, with a cheer-ful bum-py sound, as they tod-dled all a-round. And ev-ery bo-dy cried, as they 32

29

hast-ened to their side, 'See! the ta-ble and the Chair, have come out to take the air.

But in go-ing down an al-ley, to a cas-tle in the val-ley, they com

41

ple-tly lost their way and wan-dered all the day; Till, to see them safe ly back, they paid a du-cky quack and a bee-tle and a mouse, who took them to their house.

44
